Monster Truck Audio Project
|
-Open a new GarageBand project -Drag the Audio Cut onto the timeline 	-Edit the voice over to the Narration script, deleting the countdowns and useless talk
-Follow the Cut up script and split up each clip as directed. -Split the clip by placing the red playhead at the point in the timeline where you want to make the split, then from the top menus: Edit>Split (Command T) -You will have 13 clips from the voice over when all splits have been made 	-Now you want to move each clip to its own track -Click off of your voice over to deselect all tracks -Add a new tracks to your timeline -From top menus: Track>New Basic Track -You want to add 12 new tracks
-Place the first 3 clips on separate tracks
-Line each clip up so the voice over still sounds as if it was read flowing together.
(It will look like steps going down)
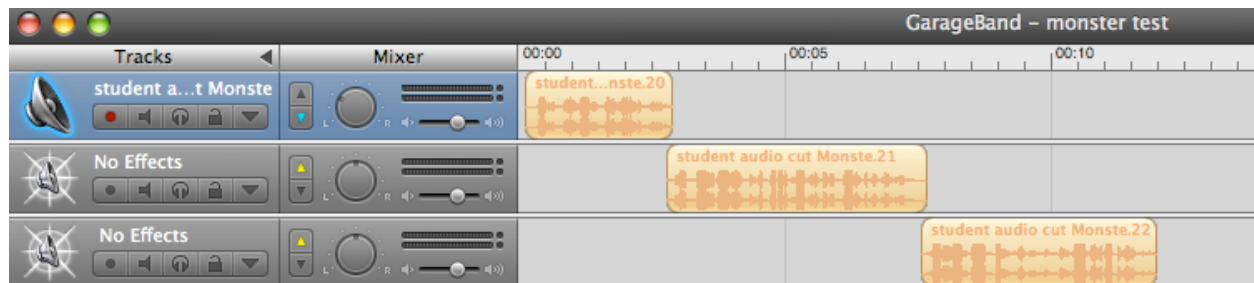

-Open your Finder from the Dock
-Scroll down to the bottom of your timeline using the side scroll bar
-Drag the Explosion MP3 into Garage Band. It will make its own new track.
-Move the Explosion track up the layers of tracks so that it is the 4th track you see.
-Line the Explosion up so that it sounds just after the voice over for track 3.
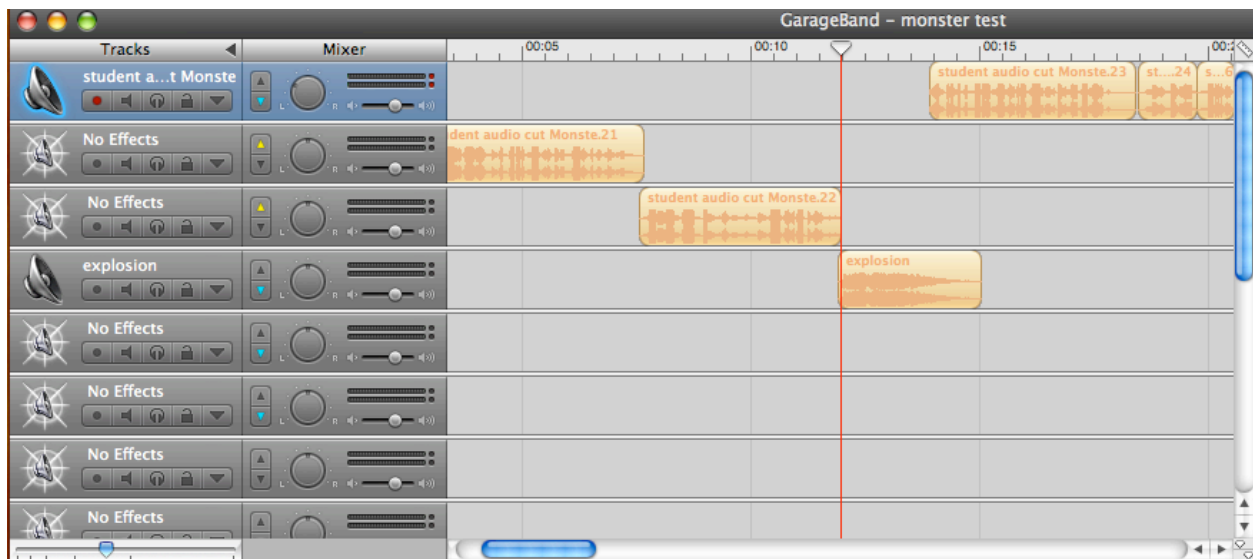

-Move the rest of the voice over clips to their own separate track.
-Clip 4 from the voice over should start below the explosion track. And it should overlap the explosion track slightly as shown here.
-Line each clip up so the voice over still sounds as if it was read flowing together.

-Open your Finder from the Dock
-Drag the Elmo MP3 into Garage Band. It will create its own track.
-Chose 1 VO section of Elmo talking of the 3 read. Choose 1 laugh of the 3 read.
-Edit the Elmo VO and laugh together so that it sounds like they occur without pause
-Move the Elmo track up above the last voice over track layer
-Slide the audio of the narrator voice over, on the last track, to the right so that it occurs after Elmo talks

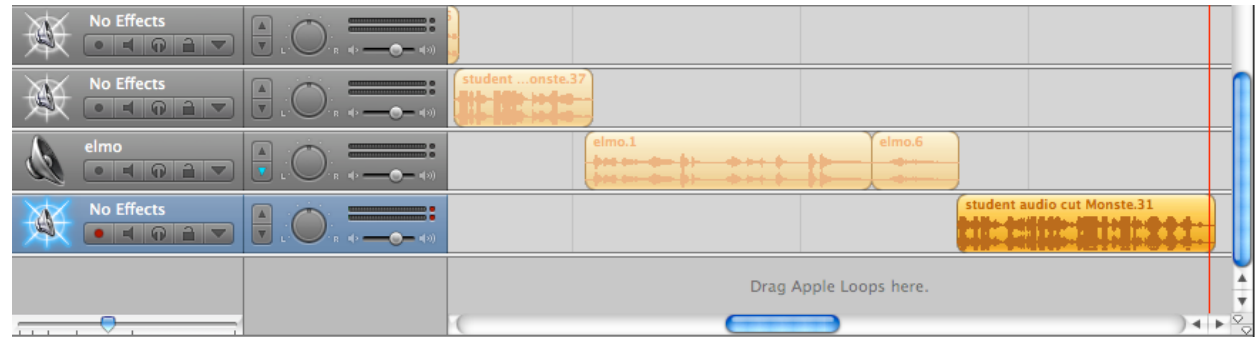

-Play your project from beginning to end to make sure it flows naturally before we add any effects to the narration voiceover.

-You will now split the very first track into 3 clips
-Sunday, Sunday, Sunday (each Sunday will be a separate clip)
-Add 2 new basic tracks (Track>New Basic Track). They will be added to the very bottom of your track layers, and you will have to move them up in the track layers.
-Move the 2 new basic tracks so that they are the 2nd and 3rd overall tracks in the timeline
-Move the 2nd Sunday VO onto the 2nd track
-Move the 3rd Sunday VO onto the 3rd track
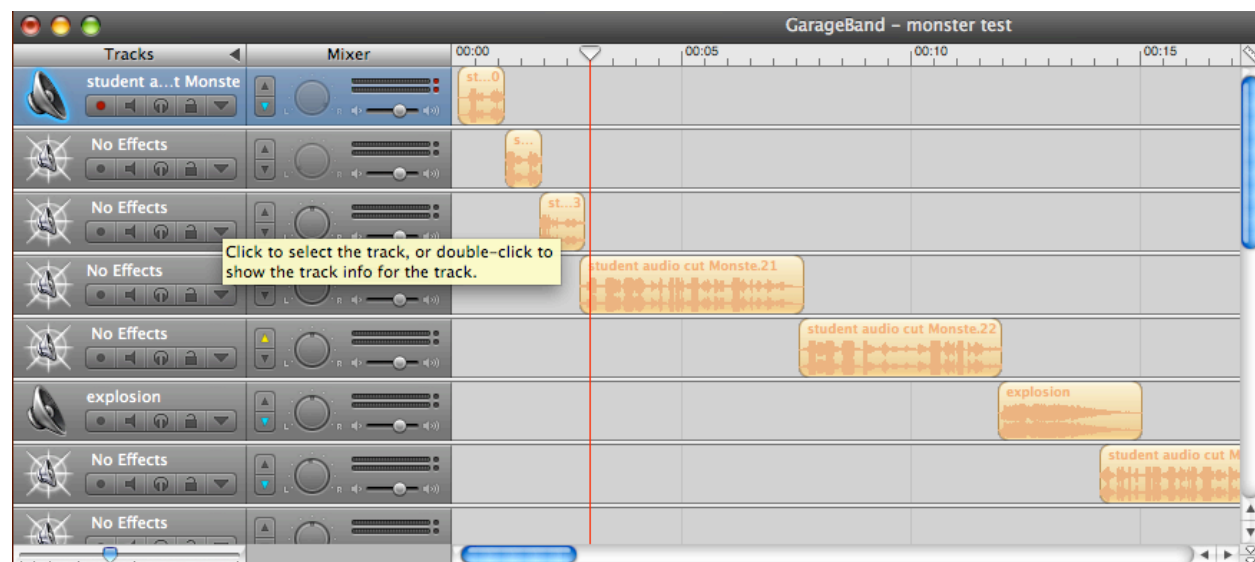

-Click on the first track
-Open the drop down arrow that has track volume and track pan
-Drag the Track Pan to the bottom on the first track (this is the first Sunday)
-Drag the Track Pan to the top on the second track (this is the second Sunday)
-Do not adjust the Track Pan on the third track (leave alone the third Sunday)
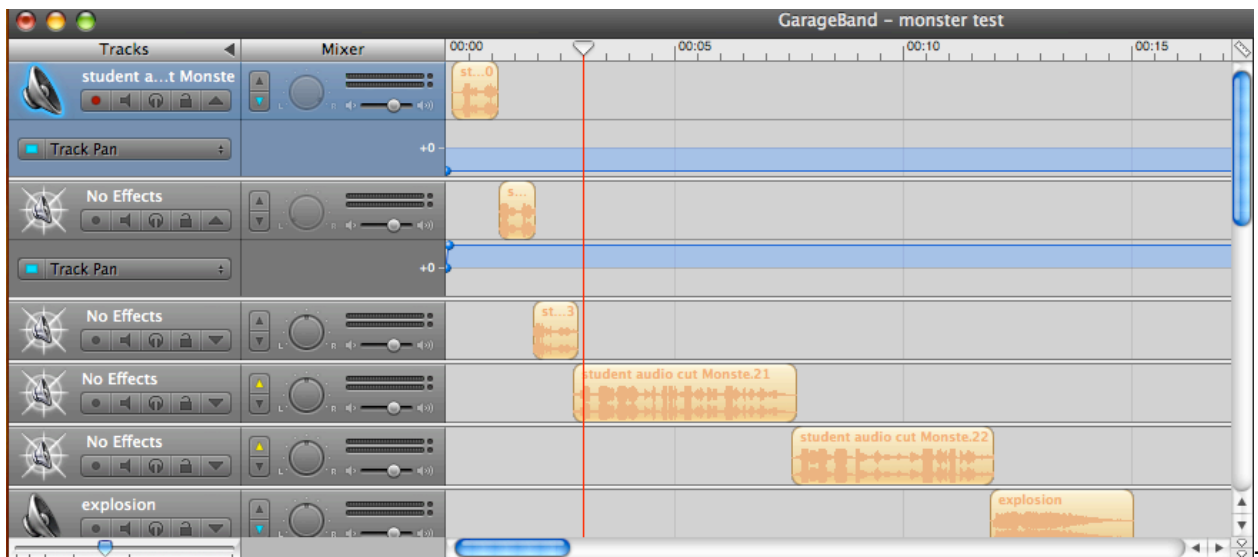

-Now we are going to add sound effects to adjust the sound of the narration VO
